Description Of Work:

The drywall in our living room ceiling was damaged by a water leak. We tried repairing the damage and redoing the rest of the ceiling ourselves but failed. Mr. Contractor repaired the damage and left the ceiling paint-ready as requested.

Member Comments:

Mr. Contractor was the 4th contractor that we called for our job. The company and Ken Spector were very professional. Ken showed up for the estimate and to sign the contract exactly at the agreed upon time. He called when he said he would call to confirm. We told him we would paint the ceiling and there was never pressure to have them do it. The guys showed up on time on the day of the work and cleaned up the little bit of mess that was made. We are very pleased with the result.
