Member Comments:

Very well, no sooner I found Mr. Contractor online and got an estimate the work was started and completed within 48 hours. I had a very bad experience with a local contractor who came and started the work and didn't finish. I found Mr Contractor and the most convenient thing about them is that they accept credit card payments. This was very helpful considering the first contractor took my deposit and didn't return it. I am very satisfied with my services and the company overall. I will be using this contractor again in the very near future for siding.

Company Response:

Member,

It was a real pleasure working with you. We do realize that unfortunately there are some "contractors" out there that give the good guys like us a bad name. We work diligently to make sure that you know you are getting our very best when it comes to quality and craftsmanship, accessibility and communication. Thank you for your review, we greatly appreciate it.
