Member Comments:
The experience was fine. Their work was good. They had to give a little extra effort for a part of the job, since it wasn't easy. The technicians were punctual and professional. I'm happy with their services.

Company Response:
Thanks for posting such a positive response for our company. Your job was a little tricky with trying to match the fake brick front you had but we got it done for you with another crew at no additional cost. Thanks for giving us the chance to bid your electric work last week. Hope to hear from you soon
