Mr. Contrator has kept my old house together for many years. This time the company performed roofing and siding work including capping some difficult to reach areas on the third floor of the house.They also worked inside repairing and painting the drywall on my kitchen ceiling.

Member Comments:

I know that I can rely on Mr. Contractor for all types of household repairs. Over the span of five years, I have contracted with them to replace floors and ceilings, install windows and flooring, cement my basement and repair my porch. Each time that I have called, Steve Spector responded quickly and professionally and his crews delivered quality work in a timely and professiol manner.
