If you require concierge service, Mr. Contractor will provide it. I worked with Kenny for extensive renovations to my historic house. I needed a lot of help making decisions about cabinets, granite, fixtures, etc. Kenny gave me good advice and actually went with me to make selections. Without exception, Kenny was 100% responsive to all of my questions and concerns. Every e-mail or phone message was answered promptly. Each crew member, eg., electricians, painters, carpenters, plumbers, was cordial and communicative. I was given a start date and a completion date, both of which were met. I was very happy with Mr. Contractor's work. I would whole-heartedly recommend Mr. Contractor in the future with one caveat: know, and have in writing, the upper limits of the products you may select.
